

Meet the 2009/2010 Scott Insurance Scholarship Winners

Employee Owned

Est. 1864

This year's Annual Scott Insurance Scholarship has been awarded to the following five academically strong, well-rounded students who show leadership, dedication and involvement in a variety of activities.

Ashley Marie Hall - Richmond

Ashley is a rising sophomore at John Tyler Community College where she is majoring in Psychology which she plans to use working with children. She is the daughter of Kenneth and Stacey Hall.

Paige Hammock - Lynchburg

Paige is a senior at Jefferson Forest High School and will be attending Lynchburg College in the fall with plans to major in International Relations. She is the daughter of Tom and Cary McFadden and Robert Hammock.

Kalley Long - Lynchburg/Roanoke

Kalley is a high school senior who has completed her senior year of homeschooling while also attending Virginia Western Community College. She will be attending Liberty University in the fall and is the daughter of Brent and Marcie Long.

Justin Sparks - Roanoke

Justin is a senior at William Byrd High School and will be attending Roanoke College in the fall, with plans to major in Computer Science. He is the son of Jay and Dee Sparks.

Brittany Steed - Greensboro

Brittany is a senior at Southeast Guilford High School and will be attending UNC-Wilmington in the fall, with plans to major in Criminology. She is the daughter of Kenyon and Stephanie Steed.